HOLMAN BLOCK, SALEM, Or. ds

POST OFFICE IMPROVEMENTS.—Supt. Uncle Sam has again leased the present post office building for five years. Some improvements are being made. A strictly first class room is hereafter to protect Salem's postmaster and employees from the influence of the gent-Oregon mist, and the entire inside of the establishment is being treated to a coat of calomine, alias whitewash. A new stove has been put in, and a new bag rack for the mailing room is to be supplied. With these innovations the establishment will have to get along until the lease expires or the government puts up a building in Oregon's capital city.

LET THE GOOD WORK GO ON.—Supt. Dawning still has a force of "trustworthy" prisoners at work graveling roads about the state property, which is one of the best moves ever made by a prison official. It establishes a precedent which will be recognized for years to come. Many enterprising citizens are assisting in the good work by contributing labor and the use of teams.

MAKE YOUR MOUTH WATER.—And your eyes too. Billy Wright is the boy that can do it, with his celebrated home-made horse raddish, ready for table. Billy has been all over the valley with it, and will now canvass Salem in the interest of humanity. Watch for him.

FLORAL CLUB.—Tonight at the Willamette parlors will be held the regular session of the floral club at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present, as there is important business to consider. All interested in flowers are invited to attend.

FILTERING.—Clothes washed in filtered water are always whiter than any other. The Salem steam laundry has gone to great expense to put in a mammoth filter which does the business up to the queen's taste.

A PATIENT DIES.—Pharis E. Wade, aged 58 years, died at the asylum on Sunday last. The remains have been taken charge of by his daughter and will be shipped to Summerville, Union county.

FLOWERS THAT BLOOM IN THE SPRING.—The greatest variety and very best quality of garden and flower seeds are now to be had at Clark & Epley's.

IT'S WEDNESDAY NIGHT.—Mark the date, and be sure you attend the entertainment and conundrum supper, by the young people of the Baptist church.

WANTED.—To trade brick or tile for a good fresh milk cow. E. W. Murphy, North Salem brick yard. 2-28 tf

NEW JAIL DEDICATED.

Salem's Economical City Calaboose Ready for Business.

Not to liberty exactly, but to the maintenance of peace and good order, City Marshal Minto this morning, with appropriate ceremony and wearing his blandest official smile and a pair of Cleveland pants, dedicated the new city basile. It is an artistic structure in two-inch plank and wearing a crown ing front. It cost $235. There are three single and a double cell, an office, and a cell for women and boys. There is an elevated bunk of soft fir, and a low iron cot, taken from the old jail in each of the large and roomy cells. Those who do not like these sleeping accommodations can find room on the floor. The cells are only intended for drunks and hobos, as higher class criminals are not expected to be kept here, but will be taken to the county jail. The cells are solidly bolted and barred and Oregon fir is harder to dig through than brick.

The old cell padlocks are attached to the doors. Ventilators are arranged for each cell and the usual conveniences of connections and city water are afforded. City prisoners are now located at the county jail. Quite a saving will be effected by this enterprise, and the empty cells await the first victim. It is proposed that some sort of a public dedication be had, if the city council would attend in a body.

MURRY CAPTURED.

He Fled To Salem Where He Was Arrested.

Ben Murry, the murderous negro, who "razored" A. J. Williams, in a Portland North End lodging house Monday morning, was captured at 9:15 o'clock last night, by Chief of Police Minto, as he stepped from the south-bound Overland train and will be retained in custody here until taken in charge by the Portland officers. The fugitive was in Portland all day Monday, and the officers cornered him several times, but he always managed to avoid them. Late in the afternoon he took an electric car to Oregon City and at 8 o'clock boarded the south train. Ex-Marshall Purdy saw him on the train and at once notified Chief of Police Hunt by telephone. The latter official immediately telegraphed to Chief Minto, and the result was Murry's apprehension.

Murry is known as a bad man and a "razor fighter." He came to Portland from San Francisco about two years ago and for a time was in the Pullman service, afterwards finding employment in the Portland hotel. Murry's victim is now out of danger, although he is very weak from loss of blood. He is a bartender and waiter by profession and has been around Portland about two years.

In the Circuit Court.

Judge Burnett had a two hour's session of the February term of circuit court this morning, and adjourned to Saturday, March 3d, at 9 a. m. Following matters were disposed of:

In the cases of the Oregon Land Co. vs. Stubbings, Craig, and Coffee, of Chicago, demurrer to new matter in answer is sustained in each case. These suits involve about $35,000. Bunham & Holmes appear for plaintiff.

In Bessie Thomas vs. L. S. Thomas, divorce. Granted to defendant without costs. No testimony was offered in behalf of plaintiff. They are from Woodburn, were married Aug. 14, 1889; Dec. 27, 1892, plaintiff willfully abandoned her husband. On these findings the decree is granted.

In J. H. Simmons vs. Mahala Simmons, suit for divorce, bill dismissed without costs.

In Martha S. Coulter vs. W. F. Coulter, suit for divorce, bill granted to plaintiff without costs.

A Life Sentence Terminated.

Frank Ohlgeschlager, aged 21, lifer, died at the penitentiary yesterday from inflammation of the bowels. He was committed from Portland February 28 last for murder in the second degree.

Frank Ohlgeschlager was convicted of murdering William Henry Woolridge at the "double bridge," six miles west of Portland, Friday night, January 27, 1893. Woolridge was an old soldier, and had lived 25 years in the Northwest—17 in Portland. Ohlgeschlager was a son of John Ohlgeschlager, a farmer living near Fulton. The two men were walking home together, both had been drinking. While crossing the bridge the young man killed the other with a club, rifled his pockets and threw the body into the gulch. He then went to the cabin of the murdered man and told his son his father had been murdered by a stranger and he himself had escaped. At the coroner's inquest he broke down and confessed, but said the murder was the result of a quarrel. This was not believed because of the robbery, but the jury gave him the benefit of the doubt and gave a verdict of murder in the second degree. He remains were shipped today to his parents at Portland.

AN INJUNCTION FEATURE.

One feature of the injunctions that always seem to appear sooner or later to stop the erection of state institutions is that they invariably appear after the appropriation has been made and a good share of the money is collected from the people to pay for them. Then the expenditure is stopped and the money lies idle in the state treasury.

In the case of the Eastern Oregon Asylum the injunction came in the nick of time to stop an investment, in which the people of Union clearly overreached themselves. In these hard times no town, not even Salem, has a right to demand that the state shall pay $10,000 or $25,000 for the privilege of locating state institutions in its midst. Plenty of good sites can be had free gratis. These enjoinders could be in better business than tying up the money that is already being collected from the people.

LITTLE LOCALS.

Some of the sewage-organs of the Salem Democratic postoffice fight should send out a disinfectant along with their sheets. Gentle mists are falling. There is to be about $300 worth of new furniture go into the Salem postoffice. A. T. Wain returned this morning from Portland. Ella Fisher, who has been the guest of E. F. Neal, left this morning for Dr. C. C. Patton returned today from Portland. Mrs. Patton remaining for a few days more.

PERSONALS.

Hon. G. W. Davis returned today from a visit at Yacquina bay. Col. N. B. Knight went down to Portland this afternoon. President J. M. Wallace, of the Salem water company, is in Portland. Judge and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett left this morning for McMinnville, where the Judge has some official business to look after.

T. N. Humphrey, an intelligent young Republican from Foster, Linn county, who reads the ONE CENT DAILY, is in the city. He reports an active lyceum there, and a spirited debate with the Populists Saturday night, over the intrinsic value of money.

A. F. Blackerby, of Silverton, who was county assessor two years and assessed about one-third of this county two persons in an acceptable manner, is in the city today. His friends, which comprise about all the Republicans in the northeastern part of the county, are going to present his name for county recorder. He would make a good one.

PRIZE FIGHTER RELEASED.—Last September Joe Bertrand, at Portland, was fined $1000 for complicity in prize fighting, and has served in the county jail until now, and today Gov. Penneyer reunited the balance of his fine, $700, on recommendation of the judge and prosecuting attorney.

COUNTY SEAT FIGHT.—Lincoln county is only an infant in years, but she already has a big county seat fight on hand. Toledo, Newport, West Yacquina and Elk City are the candidates.

FOR LARCENY.—Sheriff Smith, of Astoria today brought up Chas. Lawrence and Wm. Thomas, to serve a year each in the penitentiary for larceny.

THE MORTGAGE TAX LAW.

Mr. Geer's letter makes clear one fact that should be well borne in mind: Governor Penneyer recommended repeal of the mortgage tax law and had not the nerve to veto the bill the way it finally passed. The way it finally passed it allowed non-resident credits and money-lenders and sharpers in the cities to get out of paying any taxes on notes, moneys and credits, while the farmer or more honest and simple-minded citizen, who was not up on the sharp points of tax dodging, gave in this property and is taxed on it.

We want this made plain. The present law allows a large class of credits to escape which are owned by corporations, banks, money-lenders and sharpers. It catches and clutches the honest man, the widow, the poorer class of owners of such credits. Examination of the assessment rolls will show the way this law works. While the man really in debt, and the small owner of capital and credits is caught for full value and allowed no deduction, the big fish escape by the loophole of the law.

Governor Penneyer cannot explain away his record on this matter. If we were the only man in Oregon to hold it up to him we should consider it our duty to do so. How Populists can hurrah for Penneyer and in the same breath denounce our assessment law is a mystery. We would like to hear this matter discussed. Of course, the governor will not discuss it. He will only discuss matters, or submit to interviews with newspapermen that flatter him. That, thank Heaven, is not our only business as a journalist.

Republicans at Detroit.

General Odell, Wm. Bushey, and Sheriff Knight, were at Detroit Saturday, and report organization of a live Republican club at that place. The meeting was held at 10 a. m., at the school house, and was called to order by the president, R. M. Poe. S. P. Kerr is secretary. The meeting was opened by singing the following campaign song to the tune of "America":

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee we sing,
Land where the wheels are tied,
Land where industries died,
And to the English side
Took rapid wing.
My native country! thee,
Land to which paupers flee,
Thy name I love;
Thy no-trade tariff bills,
Thy Grethams, Smiths, and Mills,
Born from above.
Let music swell the breeze,
Democratize your knees.
And swell the song!
Let those who brought this fate
Their medicine take straight,
And three years longer wait
To right the wrong.
Our father, Grover C.
Mogul of misery!
To thee we sing!
Bear with us, if you can,
But if not, like a man,
Say you don't care a— for anything.

General Odell was then called for and delivered an old-time Republican campaign speech, which seemed to please all present and met with hearty approval and frequent interruptions of applause.

Following is a list of the Republican club of Detroit: Mrs. M. H. Dunham, Mrs. H. A. Kerr, Martha Willoughby, Mattie Poe, Alice Butterworth, L. A. Dausorth, Mattie A. Fuller, Messrs. R. M. Poe, J. S. Lewis, Wm. Horn, E. W. Sealan, D. W. Dausorth, N. G. Dausforth, John O. Fox, Slim Pearson, E. H. Blanchard, David Cass, S. P. Kerr, J. L. Berry, N. Pawley, John C. Mackey, Chas. E. Elgin, H. H. Fuller, W. W. Cashey, J. S. Smith, W. M. Bushey, A. S. Smith, Joe L. Peasley, J. Moore, H. Harper, P. M. Perry, John Leavy, C. H. Laughhead, R. M. Perceval.

One of the ladies is the wife of a well known Democrat. They insisted upon enrolling their names and will be found marching under the Republican colors until a victory is rolled up in Oregon next June such as the state has never seen. The club meets again next Saturday.

MR. GEER.

The position of another leading candidate for governor is set out in THE JOURNAL. T. T. Geer suffers an inconvenience liable to all men who think—those who read after him are forced to do a heap of thinking too. Always a favorite with Marion county Republicans, he now will be found to have the warm support of a large circle of Republicans of the state. It will be said against Mr. Geer, that he is a poor man, and that he was a member of the last legislature. Both are true. But he has been in the legislature many times and has remained poor. He has said in print that whoever is the next governor of Oregon, will have to serve for $1500 and no perquisites. Mr. Geer says he would do that. In these days when a road supervisorship is coveted as a lucrative position, by close economy a man accustomed to farm fare could support himself at $1500 a year.

As speaker of the house before the last, Mr. Geer made a record for himself and the Republican party that compares with the record of the last legislature as Hyperion to Satyr. MILL CITY.—The Republicans of Mill City propose to organize a club on next Monday night. Speakers will go up from Salem. A Ten Dollar Gold Piece for a Cent. Some time ago a gentleman bet that if he stood at the corner of Broadway and Fourteenth street, New York, and offered gold eagles to the passers-by for a cent each, he would find no purchasers. The experiment was tried, and it turned out just as he said. No one would believe that the coins were genuine. It seemed too good to be true. An equally remarkable offer is that made by the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The sovereign cure for Consumption. Think of it! restoration to life and health for a mere song. There is not a case of Lung-tuberculosis in other words, consumption—that will not yield to it, if taken in time. It is the greatest blood purifier ever known, and is guaranteed to benefit or cure in all diseases of the throat or lungs, or money refunded. Only extraordinary curative properties could warrant or sustain its makers in selling it thus, on trial.

ANOTHER HOUSE OF WORSHIP.

A New Evangelical Church to be Built in the Eastern Part of the City.

Below is given the statement of Rev. Fisher concerning the enterprise of building a new church in East Salem, which will be pleasant reading to hundreds of readers. The church trustees propose to appropriate $1500, and hope to receive subscriptions enough to make it reach $2500. The plans are made with that end in view, and it is to be hoped the work may be carried to success.

Nearly two years ago the Oregon conference of the Evangelical association purchased a lot on the corner of Chemeketa and 17th. streets in East Salem, hoping in the near future, at that time, to be able to erect on the lot a beautiful church. As a temporary place of worship the little tabernacle that now stands on the lot was built. In this tabernacle regular services have been held ever since, and a good and interesting Sunday school has been gathered.

This temporary place of worship is now to give way to a fine church, plans and specifications for which have been prepared. A committee has been appointed to carry out the project, and the church is soon to take the place of the little homely tabernacle.

The church will be 30x60 feet and is a beautiful design, as will be seen by the drawings that have been made. The inside will consist of main audience room, prayer and vestibule; the small room will be so arranged that in case of necessity it can be thrown into the audience room, and will seat more than fifty people. Over this room will be a gallery that will seat seventy-five or more people, and the arrangement is such that the front of this gallery, or balcony, will add very much to the beauty of the inside of the church. There will also be a vestibule connected with the main entrance, and from this into the audience room the pass is through double doors swinging both ways. These doors will be covered with green baze. The entire seating capacity will be about 400—that is, it will comfortably seat that many.

It will be seen by this that the committee is not only building for the present, but will erect a building that will be both an ornament to that part of the city, and also a durable, as well as up-with-the-times building.

The committee does not expect the people of East Salem to build this church for the Evangelical association, but arrangements have been made by which the church can be erected if the people will be willing to assist a little, in order to have a good, and also a beautiful house built. Therefore a subscription list will be circulated asking such as are willing to help us a little to do so.

By erecting a small cheap church we could build without any help, but we believe the property owners will be willing to help us a little in order to have a good and substantial structure put up—something that will be up with the times.

Plans and specifications can be seen by calling at the office of J. C. Booth. We would earnestly solicit the hearty co-operation of all the people in East Salem in carrying out this project.

L. B. FISHER.
